AeroResolve - Baggage Case Report

Prototype with synthetic data - not affiliated with any airline

Passenger	Sara Mostafa
Booking	BK7071
Flight	FL123 (CAI to DXB), 2026-09-20
Baggage Tag	BG45120
Status	Delayed
Last Known Location	Cairo Airport
Last Updated	2026-09-20 19:05
Decision	The baggage is delayed, so a delayed-baggage claim is required. An active claim (CL
Claim	CLM-1001
Claim Type	Delayed Baggage
Claim Status	Open
Follow-up	-
Next Step	No action - an active claim already exists.
Contact Email	sara@example.com

Case narrative

Baggage BG45120 is Delayed (last seen: Cairo Airport, updated 2026-09-20 19:05). The baggage is delayed, so a delayed-baggage claim is required. An active claim (CLM-1001) already exists, so no duplicate is created.

Passenger email (preview)

To: sara@example.com
Subject: Existing Baggage Claim CLM-1001 On File

Dear Sara,

We found an existing baggage claim, CLM-1001, for your baggage.

Baggage tag: BG45120
Flight: FL123 (CAI to DXB) on 2026-09-20
Current status: Delayed
Last known location: Cairo Airport (updated 2026-09-20 19:05)
Claim: CLM-1001 (Delayed Baggage, status: Open)

What happens next: We already have an active claim for this baggage, so no new claim was created and you do not need to submit anything else.

Policy reference (Section 4 - Filing a Baggage Claim): To file a claim the passenger must provide the passenger name, booking reference, flight number, flight date, baggage tag number and a contact email address. Delayed or missing baggage must be reported as soon as possible and no later than 21 days after the flight arrival date.

Kind regards,
AeroResolve Baggage Support (prototype)

--

This message was produced by AeroResolve, a prototype demonstration that uses synthetic data and is not affiliated with any airline.